REMARKS.

The schools the past year have been on an average with those of former years.

The roll of perfect attendance shows an interest on the part of scholars, while the teachers have all been successful.

The government in part of the schools has been improved, while in others the order has not decreased, being near the standard.

The introduction of Charts into the schools has filled a long needed want on the part of both teachers and scholars, in explaining lessons, as it gives them a chance to see whereof they read.

CHARLES H. SMITH,

JOHN G. GOODWIN,

BENNING SANBORN,

School Board of Sandown.
